

Dear FCC Commissioners & Staff:

I hope that you will be fair and help keep the smaller Internet Service Providers in business. The level of service I have been receiving from our local ISP is so far superior to that offered by the big companies that it would be a shame to take that option away from people and that will be the result if the major players are allowed to inflate their prices.

Sincerely,

Sharon Weissbach
2102 Woodford Place
Louisville, KY 40205